District Overview:

- A cab driver robbery was reported that may be related to recent K1 robberies. See K2 for details

J1 Beat:

- On Monday 2/27 at 1103 hours, in the 1200 block of Windmill Lane, a juvenile was home alone in the house and heard a knock at the door. She looked outside and observed a B/M, 25-30 years-old that she did not recognize; she did not answer the door. Shortly thereafter, she heard a door being forced open and she locked herself in a room and called 911. She heard the suspect inside the home. Jewelry was taken.
- The four thefts from vehicles reported do not appear to be related.

J2 Beat:

- The aggravated assault was mentioned in last week's summary.
 - On Sunday 2/26 0545-0615, the Hyahn Restaurant at 4007 Norbeck Road was broken into. The front door was broken, which set off the alarm. Cash was taken.
 - Overnight Wednesday 2/22-Thursday 2/23, three unlocked vehicles parked in the 18100 block of Village Center Drive, 3600 block of Cherry Valley Drive, and 17400 block of Saint Theresa Drive, were entered. Loose items left inside were taken.

K1 Beat:

- A domestic assault was reported on Weeping Willow Court resulting in one arrest.
- These events were mentioned in last weeks summary :
 - 13600 block of Georgia Ave. Sun 2/19 2020 hrs. The adult male victim was on foot north on Georgia, when a black SUV pulled up next to him. The suspect, a B/M, 5'7", 140 lbs. pulled knife. There was an unidentified female in the suspect vehicle.
 - (L1 beat) Georgia Ave. & Hewitt Avenue Tue 2/21 0900 hrs. The victim was an adult female. A B/M, described as having a thin build, jumped out of a black SUV, displayed a gun, and then followed the victim after she entered her own vehicle. The victim found MCP on an unrelated traffic stop at Randolph & Connecticut and reported the event.

K2 Beat:

- On Monday 2/27 at 2230 hours, a cab driver picked up four B/M's, average height and weight, and all dressed in black at Glenmont Metro. They directed the cab driver to Sheraton Street and Urbana Drive, within easy walking distance of Glenmont Metro. Once at the destination, one of the backseat passengers displayed a handgun and demanded cash. The victim turned over money, credit cards, and his cell phone. The suspects forced the victim to open the trunk and they searched the trunk of the cab. The victim was told to walk away. The vehicle was recovered in the 2400 block of Sheraton Street a short time later.
- The aggravated assault reported on Monday 2/27 in the 3900 block of Isbell Street was a possible aborted robbery. The adult female victim was on foot when two B/M's, 16-25 wearing ski masks approached her. Both suspects were armed with black semi-automatic handguns. Two vehicles unrelated to the assault pulled up, apparently scaring the suspects off and the victim ran away. The suspects made no verbal threats or demands.
- Overnight Thursday 2/23 to Friday 2/24, the Frost School at 4915 Aspen Hill Road was entered by breaking a window. Electronic equipment and computers were taken.
- On Wednesday 2/22 at 0300 hours, MCP responded to Turkey Branch Parkway for a suspicious vehicle. Officers located several males dismantling a '92 Honda Civic stolen from Adrian Street. Two suspects were apprehended. Other males escaped. A short time later, a '91 Acura was recovered (unknown if stolen) containing parts from the stolen Honda Civic.
- A possible sex assault was reported by a juvenile female victim. The adult male suspect is known to her.
